Ease of getting there

- International flights from US fly into Santiago
- About 9 hours from Texas/ Florida/ Atlanta

Country Pros

- First-world infrastructure
- Low levels of crime and corruption
- Geographically diverse—mountains, lakes, beaches
 - Four seasons
- High standard of living
- Strong economy
- Politically stable

Country Cons

- Southern Cone is more expensive than northern Latin America
- Little English spoken outside of cities
- Smaller (retired) expat community
- Long flight from United States
- Santiago can be smoggy (seasonal in the winter)

Santiago

Santiago Pros

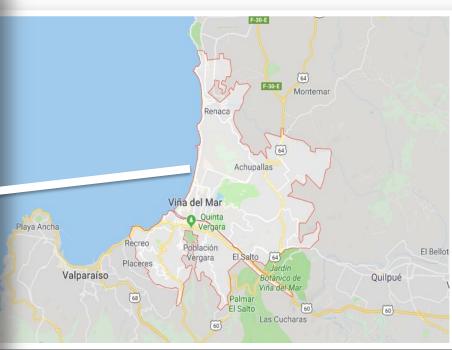

- Bustling metropolitan city with theater, restaurants, culture, parks, many things to do
- Large Expat Community
- Various neighborhoods with different vibes to choose from
- 1 hour from the mountains, 1 hour from the coast
- Great public transit

Santiago Cons

- Pollution more in the winter due to inversion
- Mostly apartment building living vs. houses
- Prices are more expensive in Santiago than rural areas
- Can have traffic, like any capital city

Viña del Mar

Viña del Mar Pros

- City amenities without feeling too city-like
- Many restaurants + things to do
- Cool summers and mild winters
- Large coastline to explore
- Close to Valparaiso and the Casablanca Wine Valley
- Expat community
- Very easy to get to and from Santiago

Viña del Mar Cons

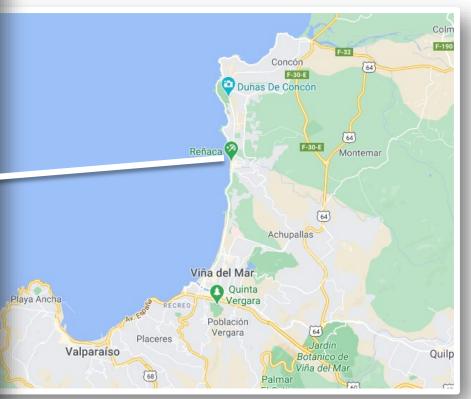

- Gets very touristy in the summer
- Busy less pristine beaches, a bit "honky tonk"
- The summers are quite cool... only in the 70s-low 80s
